

QUALITY POLICY

We at 'Kamaiah Engineering Services Pvt. Ltd.' are committed to provide high quality, consistent, professional and timely services that meet our client's requirements and ensuring the safety of people and environment.

The Quality Testing System will be supported through continual staff training and awareness to ensure that our policies and objectives are maintained and relevant to our requirements.

We are Committed To:-

- Provide non-destructive testing inspection and industrial support services that meet client's requirements and conforms to good professional practices recognized by the Organization
- Provide adequately qualified personnel according to recognized industrial standard; use appropriate equipment and recognized techniques in performing work. Staff shall be adequately trained and their skills are reviewed periodically to ensure continuing relevance and suitability.
- Keep up with changes in the industry and updating staff on the changes and new developments.
- Motivate all staff to understand and implement the policies, procedures, standards, and instructions of the company's quality system.
- Excelling at Client's satisfaction as measured by audit and management review.

- Creating profitable growth based upon being recognized as the worlds best provider of analytical and quality testing services to Oil & Gas, Power Project etc.
- Maintenance of the quality system improvements.
- Zero deviation from practices defined by the Organization that will affect the confidence of our testing results.
- Involve our business associates in our OH & S mission by sharing our expectations and collaborating with them to achieve our OH & S objectives.
- Honesty and integrity in all that we do.
- Uniform standards of behaviour.
- Optimum utilization of available resources.
- Continual review of objectives and standards.
- Compliance with all applicable legislation.
- Conformance to applicable management best practices.
- Foster open communication between all employees, and provide the necessary tools to effectively promote Organization policies, objectives and goals.